Traveling outside the U.S. before beginning your program:

If you are traveling outside the United States before attending York College, you must do the following to ensure your current F-1 status is not violated:

- Present your York College SEVIS I-20 to the Immigration officer when you re-enter the United States. Be sure the officer stamps your SEVIS I-20.
- Bring your York College SEVIS I-20, passport, and I-94 card to the Admissions Office Rm. 1B07.

NOTE: If your VISA expires during your travel abroad, be sure to apply for a new VISA at the U.S. consulate abroad. When applying for a new VISA, you must present your York College SEVIS I-20, Financial Documents, and your York College Acceptance letter to the consulate officer.

You are NOT required to apply for a new VISA, if your current VISA has not expired, (even if there is another school's notation on it).

If you have any questions about whether or not you need a new VISA, contact the Admissions office prior to traveling outside the United States.

Not traveling outside the U.S. before attending York College:

If you are not traveling outside the United States, before classes start, you must complete the transfer process within the United States. You must do the following to ensure that you do not violate your F1 student status:

- Provide International Student Advisor with the following documents:
 - a. Verification of full-time status at your previous school (Transfer Enrollment Status Form)
 - b. Your current SEVIS I-20
 - c. Copy of your passport's front page, visa page and both sides of the I-94 card
 - d. Copies of all I-20s that were issued to you from your previous school/s
